Earlier start for ACT mini-telerama

The great response from a wide variety of talented performers has moved the start of Elk Point's first-ever Associated Canadian Travelers Mini-Telerama up to 12:00 noon on Saturday, January 27 from the originally scheduled 1:30 p.m. beginning.

Television host Mike Darrow, currently from New York, will be on hand to preside at the noon opening, and will co-host the afternoon show at F. G. Miller High School Auditorium and the 6:00 p.m. supper at the Elks Hall. Ed Dyck of E & M Specialty Sales, Westlock, will also be in attendance all day. Dyck has been instrumental in the organization of the Elk Point Mini Telerama, and has had another big success with the Westlock Mini Telerama this past weekend.

The afternoon's lineup of entertainment includes the F. G. Miller High School Band, Loree Germain of St. Paul, Elk Point Ukrainian Dance Club Beginners Group, Cynthia Adkins, Karac Hendricks and his band, Grace Meger, Elk Point Ukrainian Dance Club Junior Group, the Wasylishen Family, Lakeland WunderDogs, Vermilion Highland Dancers, St. Paul's Les Tourbillons, Sherry Oszust, St. Paul Dance Academy, Elk Point Ukrainian Dance Club Intermediate Group, Deborah Grey, Rob Hendricks, and the Elk Point Ukrainian Dance Club Senior Group, in a lengthy program which is expected to conclude at approximately 5:00 p.m. The entire show will be broadcast on the Elk Point Community Channel on a half hour delay basis.

Like the original ACT Telerama, Saturday's show will have a bank of telephones manned by volunteers, where you can call in your pledges of donations to this worthy organization. The number to call throughout the afternoon is 724-3966. You may also present your donation in person at the Mini-Telerama, or during the supper or dance that evening, or mail in your contribution to: Telerama '90 Fund, Box 415, Elk Point, Alberta, T0A 1A0.

A supper and two dances are also a part of the Mini Telerama fundraising program. Advance tickets for the supper, which will be held at the Elks Hall Saturday evening at 6:00 p.m., are available at Dave's Pizza and Phil's Hardware. Only 200 tickets are available, so get yours early. F. G. Miller High School Students Union will host a teen dance Friday evening, January 26, at the school, while on Saturday evening there will be a beerfest for the adults at the Elks Hall, with music by County Express. All proceeds from both dances and the supper will go to the ACT, for their work in helping Alberta's disabled.

International Literacy Year Proclaimed

Mayor Bruce Kleeberger proclaimed 1990 as International Literacy Year in Elk Point at Monday's meeting of Town Council. LEARN Project Coordinator Heather Demchuk was in attendance and presented each Council member with a commemorative International Literacy Year pin.

Electoral boundary changes concern Chamber

The possibility of changes to provincial electoral boundaries has drawn considerable concern from the members of Elk Point Chamber of Commerce. A special committee has been established by the Province to review the current boundaries, and is considering the option of representation by population, rather than on the present territorial basis.

Under the option, 43 consti-

Crash claims former resident

Former Elk Point resident Gerald Gordon 'Jake' Orr was fatally injured in a two vehicle crash near Edmonton on Thursday, January 18. His wife, Debra, sustained serious injuries in the accident. Jake was the former owner of Jor-Ann Enterprises in Elk Point, before moving to the Grande Prairie area in 1989. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2:00 p.m. in Elk Point United Church.

tuencies would not fall within the parameters of the plan, which calls for a constituency to have a minimum of 14,014 and a maximum of 23,356 eligible voters. The St. Paul constituency, which is the sixth smallest constituency in Alberta, could disappear in the revision process, as could a number of other rural seats.

The Chamber voted to meet with Town officials to explore the possibility of presenting a joint brief expressing Elk Point's concern on the matter, or alternately, for the Chamber to prepare a supporting brief if the Town has already acted in this regard. President Vicki Brooker, Vice President Dave Yake and volunteer Sid Holthe have formed an ad hoc committee to work on a brief, which will be brought back to the Chamber's next meeting, February 7.

The Select Special Committee on Electoral Boundaries will hold a public meeting in St. Paul on Tuesday, February 13 at 2:00 p.m., at which the brief would be presented.

The Chamber's January 17

meeting also dealt with plans for their upcoming Annual Meeting, which is scheduled for Thursday, February 8. Jean Champagne from St. Paul-Smoky Lake Community Futures will be a guest speaker, and there will be a presentation from Alberta Culture regarding the promotion of developments at the Fort George - Buckingham House sites. A new President for the Chamber is being sought, Vicki Brooker having served the two terms allowed by the Chamber's constitution. Dave Yake, who recently took over as Vice President, succeeding Bill Tremblay, has offered to continue in this capacity for 1990. The posts of Treasurer and Secretary have also been filled, and the Chamber expects to have a full slate of officers to present for ratification at the Annual Meeting.

Looking ahead to the summer tourist season, the Chamber discussed the purchase of postcards, and agreed to order a thousand cards with four pictures of the area on each. The historical mural, Fort George Museum, an elk from a local game farm, and possibly an oilfield scene will make up the design. The cards will be made available to businesses for resale, as well as being sold at the Tourist Information Booth and at special events such as Canada Day.

Bill Jennissen, who represented the Chamber on the Community Services Centre Feasibility Study Committee, reported that the consultant's report is nearing completion, and will be brought to Chamber as soon as it is available. If a new Community Services Centre is built, it will likely be located on the site of its present counterpart, Jennissen said.

Council receives feasibility study

The final draft of the Community Services Centre Feasibility Study was presented to Elk Point Town Council on Monday night, and sparked considerable discussion of the recommendations for a large facility which would serve the multiple needs of the community's groups and organizations.

The proposed size of such a building was considered 'over optimistic' by several members of Council, who felt that a smaller structure with more creative use of space would meet community needs while cutting the price tag to a more realistic level. Elk Point's senior citizens have not confirmed that they wish to have their centre in the building, with some adamant that they prefer a separate structure, and this will have considerable bearing on the required size of the building. Council is certain that a new community services centre is needed, in any event, and Mayor Bruce Kleeberger predicted that 'the whole community would suffer without it.' The study was tabled for further perusal by Council before its adoption.

Vacancies on two committees were filled by appointments Monday night. Isabel Myshaniuk and Lois Sharek were appointed to the Buckingham House Management Board for terms of 3 years and 1 year respectively, while Ken Astill was reappointed as Elk Point's representative on the Municipal Airport Commission for a 3 year term.

Council studied their capital financing requirements for the coming year, and agreed to submit a report to Alberta Municipal Financing Corporation listing the raw water source upgrading and the new Community Services Centre, each valued in the neighborhood of $1 million, with specific sources of funding yet to be determined.

A long standing matter of debate regarding invoices from Cicon Engineering has finally been resolved, with Council agreeing to pay a total of $9,533.87 on the water supply system and Level 1 Report, in exchange for a release from Cicon for any further claims against the Town in these matters. The funds for the Level 1 Report are 75 percent recoverable from the government.

Means of facilitating a more permanent temporary closure of 51 Street during afternoon school dismissal time were discussed at some length, but no decision will be made until changes in traffic patterns due to the construction of an addition to the Elementary School are determined. In the meantime, the barricades are proving an effective means of controlling 'cruisers' and allowing students to make their way home in safety.

An adjustment to a utility account and a refund of the purchase price for a cemetery plot were approved by Council, as was an offer from the Attorney General's department to pay $200 per month for the use of the old courthouse two days per month until renovations to their current facility are underway.

A proposal for provision of by-law enforcement services on a contract basis was studied by Council, and it was suggested that this type of position be considered in preparations for the 1990 budget. The position was cut from the 1989 budget after no response was forthcoming when it was advertised.

Bylaw 503 / 90, amending the General Municipal Plan to incorporate parks and open space, a future road network and land for development of recreational facilities was given first reading, and a public hearing set for February 12 at 7:00 p.m. in Council chambers.

Deputy Mayor Allan Frankiw updated Council on the Northern Lights Library System meeting of January 20, noting that Mayor Kleeberger and Councillor Adele Mandryk 'did a superb job' of the Elk Point presentation. The system headquarters site will be determined at a meeting March 10 in Lloydminster, following inspection of all the proposed temporary locations by a representative of Alberta Public Works who has had experience in the building of other system headquarters.

A request for the release of MRTA funds to the Elk Point Golf and County Club was deferred, because funding cannot be released until all projects have been prioritized. A meeting of the Recreation Committee to discuss prioritization will be held next week, so the priorities can be presented to the Community Services Board for their approval.

Deputy Mayor Frankiw was authorized to attend a Public Forum hosted by the NADC in Ashmont on February 20, and to present a brief on the Town's behalf.

Hockey creed

What kind of so-called 'Grown Ups' Are those who choose to thrust Such mean and angry words of hate On hockey players like us?

We skate so hard to make that goal Like we are told to do, But folks yell, 'Get him! Kill that kid!'

And often start to Boo!

We're told it's sport, not win or lose, But 'How you play the game.' If adults want to do what's right, Why don't they do the same?

So, Mom and Dad, 'I ask you please,

Leave anger at the door' And fill the rink with brotherhood, That's really what it's for!!

Elk Point Figure Skating Club news

Our club has been going strong for several months now and it is indeed a very dynamic club, right from the little tots who put on their first pair of skates this fall to the Senior skaters who work so hard at attaining their goals while also helping and encouraging the younger skaters. As in the past we have Tots, CanSkate and CanFigure categories and, for the first time, a Precision Skating Team.

Jackie Whiffen-Peters is the coach of Tots and CanSkate with Lee Ann Wozniak handling the coaching of CanFigure and Precision. The private coaches are Sandra Lindinbreck, Katharina Ludlage, and Tammy Robinson, all of whom are doing great things with the skaters and we do appreciate their dedication.

The past months have been busy ones with practices and competitions. Three of our skaters, Shauna Loughran, Elisabeth Ludlage, and Charlene Anderson, went to Regionals the weekend of November 11-12 with Charlene advancing to Sectionals. The weekend of December 9-10 saw Charlene placing 9th overall in the "A" competition. Charlene, Elisabeth, and Christina Estey were at the Ice Palace of West Edmonton Mall on January 20 for the Winter Games Zone 7 Runoffs and Charlene will be going to the Alberta Winter Games in Camrose February 22-25 thanks to her second place finish.

Meanwhile, hard at work with the hope of someday sharing the limelight with these girls are: Dannel Anderson, currently working on her First Figure, Junior Bronze Free Skate and Junior Bronze Dance; Tobey Conrad, aiming for her 4th Figure, Senior Silver Free Skate and Senior Silver Dances. Callie Baumgardner is working on her 2nd Figure, Junior Bronze Free Skate, and Senior Bronze Dance. Carrie Baumgardner has her sights on her Preliminary Dance, Preliminary Free Skate, and Preliminary Figures. As well as going to competition, Charlene Anderson is also practising for her 3rd Figure, Senior Bronze Free Skate and Senior Silver Dances. Christina Estey is working to attain her 3rd Figure as well as Senior Silver Dance, and Junior Silver Free Skate. Shauna Loughran and Elisabeth Ludlage are both shooting for their Gold Free Skate with Shauna going for her 6th Figure and Elisabeth trying for her 5th Figure and her Gold Dances. As well as being a certified professional Figure Skating Coach Katharina Ludlage has her 7th Figure to work towards, as well as her Senior Competitive Dances. She is presently instructing in Elk Point, St. Paul, and Bonnyville. These young ladies are all dedicated to their sport and we wish them all good luck in their endeavors.

Proclamation

The United Nations has proclaimed 1990 as International Literacy Year. In observance, the town of Elk Point wishes to reaffirm its commitment to the eradication of illiteracy in our Province.

The problem of adult illiteracy is worldwide; but it is also prevalent in Elk Point. Even today, thousands of people in our province are trapped in lives of dependency because of their inability to read and write. They are forced to seek help with everyday activities which most of us take for granted; using the telephone book, locating streets, ordering a meal from a menu, reading the newspaper, completing job application forms and writing letters to family and friends.

This problem would be serious enough if it existed only among elderly people who did not have a chance to go to school in their youth, or among people who did not have the ability to acquire the necessary skills. Unfortunately, however, we know that large number of capable young adults are functionally illiterate.

May our observance of International Literacy Year be the first step in our recognition of and responsibility to the many people around us who have difficulties with reading and writing.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Bruce G. Kleeberger, Mayor of Elk Point, do hereby proclaim 1990 be designated as International Literacy Year in Elk Point.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have here unto set my hand and seal this 22nd day of January, 1990.

Champion Arbitrator

University of Alberta student Anna Fedorus proudly displays the challenge trophy and certificate she brought back from a successful trip to the Intercollegiate Business Competition at Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario.

Local area resident awarded scholarship

Two hundred fourteen students who are presently enrolled at Camrose Lutheran University College were presented with scholarships/grants at the annual Scholarship Banquet held in October. Receiving such an award was Jayme D. Pelech of Lindbergh, first year Faculty of Arts student, who won a $625 Academic Scholarship.

A total of 380 guests attended the Banquet, which included the Scholarship Recipients, City Mayor, Camrose County Representatives, members of the College Administration and Faculty, as well as Scholarship Donors from the Camrose Community.

Together with the Community, Camrose Lutheran University College provides over $177,000 in annual scholarships to its students. Awards are made on the basis of Academic, Fine Arts, Leadership, and Athletic qualifications, as well as Financial Need.

Camrose Lutheran University College is an accredited Liberal Arts College offering Three and Four year Arts and Science Degree Programs in fifteen majors, plus various other disciplines which can act as pre-professional studies. Also offered is an accelerated Grade Twelve Program which prepares students for university studies.

Scholarship Winner

Jayme Pelech was a recent scholarship recipient at Camrose Lutheran College.

Anna FedorusTop labor arbitrator

A former student of F. G. Miller High School has won distinction as a labor arbitrator in an intercollegiate business competition at Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario. Anna Fedorus and her partner, Darren Kelly, represented the University of Alberta in the competition, held January 11 to 14. The U of A also sent teams to compete in accounting, business policy, marketing, parliamentary style debating, and computer-based business games at the 12th annual event.

Miss Fedorus and Kelly were selected for the competition on the basis of a preliminary case which was sent to 23 universities across Canada. Each team was given a grievance between union and management and had to prepare arguments for both sides, check precedents in the law library to support their positions, then play the role of the board and make a decision. The completed cases were sent back to Queen's to be marked, with the top five universities winning a berth in the competition, along with a team from the host university. The U of A, along with the University of Calgary, Lakehead University of Thunder Bay, Mount Allison, (New Brunswick), and the University of New Brunswick (St. John) were successful in the Labor Arbitration preliminaries.

The U of A team, which also included competitors in Accounting and Business Games, travelled to Kingston on Thursday, January 11, and were welcomed with a briefing session and mixer.

Friday morning, the pair was handed their case in a sealed envelope. The grievance, in the initial stages of arbitration, dealt with 'Pay Equity,' equal pay for work of equal value. Miss Fedorus and Kelly were assigned the management side of the argument, with Mount Allison as their union counterparts. Each side had 5 hours to prepare their arguments and to attempt to find cases using the same concept to use as precedent before presenting their cases. The board of three judges consisted of a Queen's professor, a Canadian Union of Public Employees representative and a labor lawyer. 'They really brought out the heavyweights,' Miss Fedorus noted.

They made their presentation at 3:30 p.m. that afternoon before an audience, with union and management each given seven minutes to make their argument. The judges then questioned each side on their arguments for five minutes, which Miss Fedorus said were 'the longest five minutes of my life.' Each side then had five minutes to make a rebuttal. The board then took an hour to make a decision on the arguments presented by all six teams, ruling in favor of management. This was followed by a debriefing session for the competitors.

An evening boat cruise took the students to Wolfe Island in Lake Ontario for a barn dance and sleigh rides. Saturday was a lazy day of watching other teams compete, including a final debate between Queen's and the U of Calgary on, 'Be it resolved that membership has its privileges.' The evening was devoted to the Awards Banquet at Howard Johnson's Hotel, at which Miss Fedorus and Kelly were among those to receive certificates and plaques for their achievements. Saturday was Kelly's birthday, while Sunday was Miss Fedorus', so the double event was celebrated along with their win.

She spent her birthday flying back to Edmonton, 'tired, but filled with memories of a great experience.'

Among Miss Fedorus' souvenirs of the competition are her t-shirt and clipboard from the Intercollegiate Business Competition, and a number of pins from other universities, for which she traded pins generously donated by the Town of Elk Point, County of St. Paul, Elk Point Public Library and Elk Point Historical Society, as well as pens and stickers from Windsor Salt.

Miss Fedorus gives much of the credit for the successful arbitration to the U of A's Industrial Relations team, which includes three U of A professors who are professional arbitrators, and who put her and her teammate through practice sessions and gave them instructions on how to talk, what to wear, and other pointers leading to the winning presentation.

Community effort

Sincere thanks to all the groups and individuals who are getting involved in this weekend's ACT Mini Telerama.

The idea came from the executive of the Elk Point Ukrainian Dance Club, but from the start, these ladies were emphatic that the event would be a community effort, and that is exactly what it has become. The F. G. Miller Students Union volunteered to host a dance on Friday night, the Royal Purple to cook Saturday's supper for the Dance Club to serve, the Scouting Association to sell lunch during the Mini Telerama, and other groups to man the door at supper and dance, run the bar at the beerfest, and do any number of other necessary tasks. Then there are all the talented individuals who have offered to perform on stage, a truly star-studded lineup of them.

That is what 'community' really means--people working together for a common goal, and for the good of all. This time, the 'good' is being spread even further, as the proceeds from the weekend go out to help Alberta's disabled.

Now, all that remains is for the entire community to dig deep into their pockets and donate generously to this most worthy cause, in support of all those who have worked together to present this memorable event.

RING THOSE PHONES! RING THOSE PHONES! Or, better yet, bring down your donation in person, and enjoy the Mini Telerama to the fullest!

No butts

No ifs, ands, and especially no butts--it's Non Smoking Week, and today is the feared Weedless Wednesday!

If you are a smoker, how is your battle against the weed going? Or are you pretending you haven't heard the messages exhorting you to butt out and go at least one day without a cigarette? If so, you probably never notice the warnings printed on your cigarette package either, or maybe you buy loose tobacco and roll your own so you won't have to read it everytime you reach for a smoke. Sorry, but that won't alter the facts, or protect your lungs from nicotine buildup and the lungs of your children from secondhand smoke. Sure, we all know people who have grown old in spite of smoking, including some who puff on ancient and smelly pipes. We also know of people who have died of lung cancer and emphysema and have never touched a cigarette in their life. Still, smoking is a factor to be reckoned with if you wish to live a longer and healthier life. Why not just try one single day--or even just an hour--without a cigarette, and think about what kicking the habit could do for you? For one thing, if you give up a pack a day for a year, you'd have enough money saved to spend a holiday in some far warmer climate, by the time next Weedless Wednesday rolls around. Sounds inviting, doesn't it?

If you're a non smoker, have you noticed the air around you smells a little better today? Some of those puffers out there must have gotten the message, at least for now. Actually, conditions are getting better on an ongoing basis. All government buildings are smoke-free, as well as most schools and hospitals, many stores and offices, and even some entire restaurants. All this helps to provide more clean air environments. It's only the other places, such as bingo and dance halls, lounges, and the homes and cars of smokers, where you have a hard time avoiding the pall of smoke. It's almost enough (and sometimes IS enough) to make people stay home instead of going out for a relaxing evening. But for today, at least, enjoy the fresher air--and keep your fingers crossed that Non Smoking Week will have some long-lasting effects.

Alberta Trails

Not so hard to be number two

By Irene Magnusson

In these somewhat confining days of a new year, a new decade, and admittedly winter - even a mild one - we have more time to listen to our radios, television, and reading the papers. More time, it seems, to follow the news. Just now I'm thinking more of the news regarding our own Canada from sea to shining sea, than of the more horrific spots of the world.

We here in Canada, we are different - and not, thank God, just in our imaginations. We do things differently. Take Canadian politics.

In comparison to how governments are formed and treated, in other parts of the world, we have opted for, not bombs, but bombast, gone from bullying to B.S.ing, from gunshots to cheap shots. Dare I say it - from army rule to armchair drool.

It must work. Outside of the misfortunate Pierre LaPorte, done in a few years back by some fanatics who hadn't learned how to be Canadians yet, nor learned how Canadian politics are played, we have been fairly free of shotgun politics.

We have our own way. We have elections, freely held and participated in, where each Party uses verbiage like there was no tomorrow. Each is so certain their ideas and plans are without flaw - even if untried and unproven - ceaselessly squandering money right and left to bring their views to our immediate attention. We, the people, then go out and cast our votes, if we bother to vote at all, exactly as we intended to all along.

I think few people are really swayed by the much-mooted "issues", even the big-blast ones like Meech Lake, Free Trade, etc. For one thing, we probably don't understand them all that well, some of us just don't care, while others take the view that the 'experts' will figure things out and do what is best, in the circumstances, for Canada.

So what we look for is a party who seems to have it most together, who seem to have attracted at least some intelligent people, with a bit of know-how, and who have convinced us they will try their best to run our country, to the best of their ability, for the common good.

We are probably, for the most part, not too sure there is all that much difference between the lot of them, accepting that a few rotten apples may show up in the barrel, but with Canadian faith that they will not be the majority, and that the others, being decent Canadians out to do the best they can for our country, will notice the smell, before it gets too bad, and will pitch the rotten ones out. From any Party.

Okay, we have the election. We'll call the elected gang No. 1. Now it is the duty of No. 2, No. 3, and however many No.s there are, to spend the rest of their time, until the next election, complaining about whatever No. 1 decides to do. They may decide to paint everything white one day (and theoretically they can do it, since they have the most votes). The opposition parties will immediately scream, from every soapbox in the country, that white is the death of our country and only insane, double-crossing, brain-dead politicians, deceitful and run-amuck, would ever select such a color for us.

Now remember, they do not have to select a better color - or any color at all - just complain. Next week, the ruling party may decide white is not right (perhaps reminds them too much of all our snow), and will dip their brushes into pink, purple, green - or even black - and immediately to No. 2, et al, that becomes the one and only color that is wrong, wrong, wrong. Again - no need for No. 2, 3 or 4, to select a better color. No one can blame them, if No. 1's selection damages the ozone, or strips the gears. They are safe. No. 2's don't have to prove their choices or theories are right or good for the country. All they have to do is complain.

Perhaps, one day, No. 1, heeding all the complaints, will decide "Maybe they have a point. Let's try No. 2's selection." You know what happens next. Immediately No. 2, 3 and 4 will turn on the plan, the idea, and condemn it. I think there is never supposed to be a point of pleasing them. That is not their role, to be pleased; it is only to complain.

Fortunately, we have this system where complaints alone will not remove the majority from office, only the next election can do that.

I am quite glad of that arrangement. It would be very unsettling to have it all settled with bombs and lead.

I can think of a few other things we could use our outrage and protest on, to some possible advantage. Take the drug scene; we spend countless dollars and effort through police work, to catch the pushers, peddlers and planters - but why not send some of that effort the other way, towards the users, the idiots who make the pushing pay? But no, they are patted softly on the head, clucked over, and allowed to go right ahead, making it all worthwhile for the pushers and peddlers to roam the land. If all the 'users' found were to have their names published on a billboard, and in the papers, and allowed to spend a few months or years in jail 'having fun', maybe they would think twice before opting for the joint, sniff or shot. I'll include the boozers in this plan, too. Maybe some time to clear their heads of the 'dope' would bring them to opt for real living, instead of semi-alive.

I have winter thoughts on what we should do with the Ngs of this world, too, and believe me, it doesn't include spending millions on them, to keep them from facing their just desserts. No. That could go toward reducing our deficit, or into Medicare.

I've been hearing the cries and tears over the loss of VIA rail, and all the gnashing of teeth. We lost our railroad years ago, and no one died, that I know of. I remember one politician (could it have been Ray Rier-son?) whose platform was "Continue the CNR out to Onion Lake or bust." It never got there - nor did anything bust; except, I guess, the railroad.

So while No. 1 in our political field may be forced to sweat blood, No.s 2, 3, 4, etc., can continue to scream "Wrong, wrong!" No. 1 has the tough job; it's not so hard to be No. 2.

Glendon, Clandonald top B & R tourney

Glendon Comets Won 'A' Side Honors

B & R Bullets Hosted the 8-Team Tourney

'B' Side Winners--Clandonald

Frog Lake T-Birds--'B' Runners-up

In Pittsburgh at the NHL All-Star game, it was the Wales Conference over the Campbell Conference, 12-7. In Elk Point, it was Glendon Comets who took the B & R Bullets No-Hit Hockey Tournament with a 10-4 runaway victory over the host team in the 'A' Side final. The 'B' Side came to a more even conclusion, with Clandonald winning over Frog Lake by a single goal.

The Comets received $450 for their win, with the Bullets taking the runner-up prize of $250. Richard Spasiuk was named Glendon's Most Valuable Player, and contributed two goals and 4 assists in the final game. Preston Kostura and Dennis Bacque each contributed two goals, while Kendall Kowalchuk, Calvin Kissel, Paul Ouellette and Roger Bilodeau contributed singles. Bilodeau also provided 3 assists. Kissel and Robert Kastelen 2 each, Rick Cadrin and Garry Kissel one each.

Mark Wilson was B & R's MVP. Ernie Poulin led the Bullets' scoring with a pair, while Darrell Copeland and Scott Wilson scored singles. Thomas Kondla, Mark Wilson, Ron Lesyk, George Hahn and Darrell Copeland provided assists.

B & R won over Harris Electric in semi final play, while Glendon defeated Hanna to win their berth in the final.

In 'B' Side action, Clandonald earned $350 for their 8-7 win over Frog Lake, who took home the $150 consolation prize. Clandonald MVP Dave Cusack scored 4 goals during the game, with singles coming from Sam Butz, Dave Bardoel, Pat Bardoel and Dan Bergeron. Sam Butz and Les Cusack each provided 3 assists, with single assists by Randy Bardoel, Bob Brodwin, Daryl Molineux and Dennis Brake.

Frog Lake T-Birds MVP was Rocky Quinney, who scored 3 goals and one assist. Paul Quinney added 2 goals, while Lenny Quinney and Norm Quinney Jr. scored singles. Norm Quinney Jr. and Vernon Dion each had 2 assists to their credit, while other assists came from Derrick Stanley, Larry Quinney, Joey Quinney and Brad Quinney.

Clandonald won over Landonville and Frog Lake over Big Horn in semi-final play. Elk Point Hotel Broncos, St. Paul Donald Hotel, and teams from Wainwright and Redwater also took part in the 3-day tournament.

The decade in review - 1983

Ronald Reagan announces Star Wars Initiative...Margaret Thatcher re-elected...Hanging reinstated in Britain...US troops invade Granada...

JANUARY - The Town of Elk Point announced that only 39 building permits were issued during 1982, but these included the Elementary School renovations, the new courthouse, and industrial area developments by Lloydminster Heavy Crude and Denny's Auto Body...Kate Arnold was honored on her 90th birthday...Walter Saranchuk retired as Hospital Administrator...General Reassessment of all property in Elk Point got underway...Newly elected MLA John Drobot visited Council...Allen Warawa was elected President of the Chamber of Commerce...KATIMAVIK Group III arrived in Elk Point...Bill Ference won over 7 rivals in the County by-election for the seat formerly held by John Drobot.

FEBRUARY - Over 300 concerned cattlemen packed the Elks Hall to demand "meaningful stabilization" for their product and to protest unequal treatment to that received by producers in neighboring provinces...The Royal Canadian Legion donated $4,000 to the F.G. Miller Bus Fund...Trevor Dunham of the Primrose area invented a unique "Quarter Horse Chainsaw" in industrial arts class...Council studied upgrading the Water Treatment Plant, to the tune of $46,480...A Surface Rights lawyer told the Elk Point Surface Rights Association not to sign away surface rights on the threat of a court order...Plans for a proposed vocational school in Elk Point were announced...1062 volunteers from 33 Elk Point organizations were honored for their contribution of 65,138 hours of free labor to those groups...Temper flared at an Alberta Cattle Commission meeting as the beef producers continued to search for an end to their economic woes...Town Council, on the other hand, announced that they had pulled out of the previous year's financial difficulties and now had an operating surplus on the books.

MARCH - The extraction process of heavy crude oil was explained by personnel of Westmin Resources at the Chamber of Commerce Annual Meeting...Elk Point Pacers hosted their 10th Annual basketball tournament...Walter Skolarchuk was elected president of the Range Patrol...Mayor Mike Habiak declared Elk Point "in good control of expenditures" at the Town's Annual Meeting...Bumper to Bumper joined the Elk Point business community...General reassessment, which raised the total assessed value of property in Elk Point from $1.8 million to $14.3 million, was explained to concerned ratepayers, who were assured that mill rates on their 1983 taxes would take a corresponding dive...The new sanitary landfill site was reported to be causing problems for a neighboring landowner.

APRIL - The Steve Kuziw Memorial Foundation Fund was established to help young people to develop new skills in sports, culture or leadership...A Town survey indicated downtown businesses were in favor of the implementation of angle parking...KATIMAVIK participants bid farewell to Elk Point...An auction sale boosted the F.G.M. Bus Fund...Construction at Whitney Lakes Provincial Park was reported to be progressing on schedule...Town Council questioned the need for a continued agreement with Lakeland Ambulance Service...Elk Point Bike Road-e-o was a big success...Last year's planned brochure project had disappeared into oblivion.

MAY - CHED personality Bruce Bowie was the guest speaker at F.G. Miller High School Graduation Exercises...Planning got underway for the Canada Day festivities...Sid Holthe was honored on his retirement from FGM...Heinsburg's Class of '83 was the largest ever, with 14 graduates...A joint meeting of the Elk Point Historical Society and representatives of other organizations discussed three options for the reconstruction of Fort George and Buckingham House fur trading forts, with the $14 million Plan A preferred by all...Pioneer Circle seniors celebrated the 10th anniversary of their group...The 1983 mill rate was set, down 2.2 and 1.4 percent from the 1982 figures when calculated into tax dollars payable on a piece of property...Angle parking on Main Street was initiated...The Town was given 3 months to move out of the old dump site...Leakage from the water reservoir was causing problems with wet farmland.

JUNE - Cuts in tourist booth funding were announced...The Chamber felt that holding the Rendezvous Days rodeo at Whitney Lake was taking business out of town...The Town decided to abandon the defunct brochure project...Leanne Drobot and Melvin Brooker showed the 4-H Grand and Reserve 4-H Champion steers...An $87,838 proposal for water treatment plant upgrading was accepted by the Town...Plans for apartment buildings at the north end of town met with mixed reactions...High School dramatists presented the popular musical, "Snoopy"...A package of Elk Point news destined for the St. Paul Journal was rerouted to Smoky Lake in a camera bag sent for repairs, and went to print a week late...A severe drop in Ukrainian Language student numbers made continued offering of the course doubtful...Showers failed to dampen the audience's enthusiasm for Stoney Lake Rodeo...The same rainfall allowed the Town to repeal their water rationing.

JULY - Over 600 people celebrated Canada Day with nickel ice cream cones, Red River Jig and Old Time Fiddling contests, ethnic dances and a variety of other events...A tornado tore into the Spring Park area, destroying a barn, house trailer and outbuildings on the Lester Smith farm...Entries were down in the rain-plagued Rendezvous Days parade, but Whitney Lake Rodeo carried on in spite of the less-than ideal weather...Alberta Wheat Pool opened their new high-throughput facility...Langevin Builders of St. Paul submitted the winning bid for the new Town Shop.

AUGUST - Elk Point Surface Rights Association studied new revisions to the Surface Rights Act...Two horseback riders arrived in the Spring Park area after a 155 mile trek from Edmonton...Mobile home sites were desperately needed, and the Town decided to allow temporary location of these units on any serviceable lot in Elk Point until a mobile home park could be constructed...A proposal for a 30 lot mobile home park was studied...Summer Games silver medals were won by Joanne Giguere and Steven Schaap...Pat Bekker won the Grand Aggregate award at Elk Point Fair...Elk Point Agricultural Society hosted their first annual horse poker rally.

Alberta's Round Table on Environment and Economy

Who would you nominate?

We need your nominations to select three knowledgeable Albertans to serve as citizens-at-large on the newly-created Alberta Round Table on Environment and Economy.

The successful nominees will have a key role in ensuring that the use of our resources and the environment today does not damage prospects for their use by future generations.

The Alberta Round Table will include the three citizens-at-large appointed through this public call for nominations. It will also include representatives from many sectors of Alberta's society including the academic community, environmental organizations, agriculture, business, energy, forestry, health, labour, law, rural and urban governments, Native Albertans and an appointed Chairman. The Ministers of Environment and Economic Development and Trade will serve as ex-officio members.

Key responsibilities will be to advise government on matters of policy related to the integration of the economy and the environment; and support and link with the national and other provincial round tables on inter-jurisdictional and international matters.

For more information contact:

Corporate and Strategic Management Division
Alberta Environment
Telephone: 427-0047 (in Edmonton)

Deadline for nominations to be received is March 2, 1990.

GOVERNMENT OF ALBERTA

Lakeland Tourist Association making preparations for 90's

The Lakeland Tourist Association held their 1990 Annual Meeting in Bonnyville on Saturday, January 20, electing their directors for the coming year and hearing reports on a successful year of operation just completed.

President Steve Rowan of Lloydminster applauded the dedication and hard work of the Board of Directors, management and staff in making the LTA 'a strong force in tourism development in northeastern Alberta,' and predicted that '1990 will be an even more active year for the association.' Vice President Ian Moore reported on the Team Tourism program, which saw $135,000 allocated to 25 projects throughout the Lakeland during 1989. The program runs to the end of March, 1993, and has a total of $1.5 million available for marketing of the Lakeland's tourism products and developing new marketing strategy.

Lise Langevin, who recently resigned as LTA Manager, said that 1989 was 'an exciting and changing year for the Lakeland, and for tourism in general.' Among the projects completed were a calendar of events, a lure brochure, the just-off-the-press 'Discover Lakeland 1990,' and two videos of 4 and 10 minute duration. Travel Alberta photo shoots have given the Lakeland an extensive photo library available to LTA members for use in promotional material, while the LTA's own quarterly newsletter has helped the members of the Association to keep in touch with developments throughout the zone.

Luncheon speaker was Calvin Jeffries, who brought greetings from Tourism Minister Don Sparrow, and pledged the Minister's support in developing the Lakeland's tourism potential. He addressed the new trends, which see consumers developing new tastes and seeking new adventures. Travel patterns are changing, with short 'sprint vacations' growing more popular, and older travellers seeking lower impact activities and more comfortable accommodation. New markets, including the European Economic Community and more Albertans travelling in their own province, are emerging. Development of four-season resorts, destination areas, natural and scenic resources are underway to meet changing tastes in travel. Changes in the Department of Tourism reflect the Province's economic diversification policy and involve long term planning for increased efficiency and effectiveness, development of goals and setting of priorities. Initiatives in the business services area will 'help budding entrepreneurs cut through the red tape,' while areas around major tourism generators will be encouraged to create more attractions to keep visitors in the area longer.

Jeffries also spoke on the importance of 'grassroots tourism,' and the role that Community Tourism Action Plans play in it. The Lakeland, he said, did a very good job of responding to CTAP, and he doesn't 'think you'll ever regret doing a plan.'

The new non-resident exit study and the proposed resident survey will help to update tourism statistics, Jeffries said, while the economics of wildlife tourism, in conjunction with Alberta Fish and Wildlife, show great potential. A commercial recreation study is now being done in northern Alberta.

In closing, Jeffries addressed the development of interpretive centres, such as those to be built at Fort George-Buckingham House and at Dunvegan. 'You have to do it right,' he commented, by examining markets, picking a 'unique and different' theme, and building in revenue generators to insure self sufficiency.

The meeting concluded with the election of the 1990 Board of Directors, with four directors chosen for each sub-zone. Leo Bourassa, Diane Slater, Lyle McRae and Terry Langis of Fort McMurray will represent Area 1, Peter Goruk of Smoky Lake, Derek Pachal of Lac La Biche and Peter Tychkowsky and Jean Champagne of St. Paul were elected in Area 2, Dave Bush, Darcy Reynolds and Ian Moore of Bonnyville and Ron Olson of Cold Lake in Area 3, Laura Kupsch of Bruderheim, Dave Kucherawy and Inge Moore of Vegreville, and Dan Stepaniuk of Innisfree in Area 4, Steve Rowan and Jean Sloan of Lloydminster, Sheri Heller of Islay and Vicki Brooker of Elk Point in Area 5.

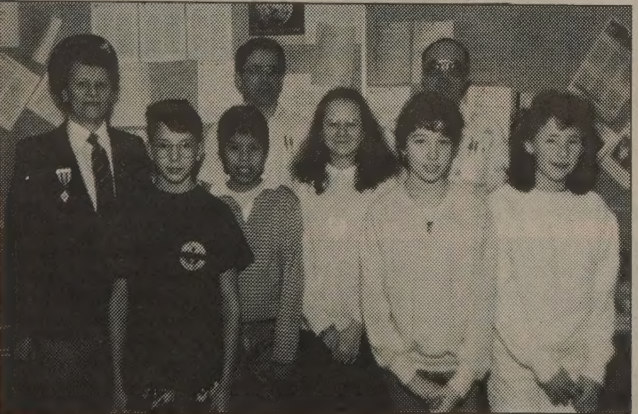

Legion Zone Poster Winners

Elk Point Branch President Helen Moneta, Royal Canadian Legion, presented cash awards to Raemi Fischer, Grade 7, 2nd, and Dorothea Naber, Grade 8, 1st at Zone level in the Remembrance Day Poster Contest. F. G. Miller High School art teacher Kaz Lazicki (left) is proud of the numerous winning entries his students have produced for the contest over the years.

Grade 5 Winners

Grade 6 Winners

Grade 6 winners in the Remembrance Day poetry, essay and poster contests were presented with their awards by President Helen Moneta, Elk Point Branch, Royal Canadian Legion, last week. Shanna Baker, 1st, and Noreen Gadwa, 2nd, were the poetry winners, Cassie Onusko, 1st, (not pictured) and Billy Cardinal, 2nd were the top essayists, while Ryan Kozicky, 1st, and Christine Sereda, 2nd, won the poster division. Mr. Sereda and Mr. Meger are proud of their talented students.

Community Services news

The Health Unit is offering a 'Body Sense Course. Body Sense is a training program aimed at a lifetime of weight maintenance free of continual dieting. It provides you with a sense of your body's needs for food, exercise, activity, relaxation and peace of mind. The program is designed for adults. The Elk Point Ballet and Jazz Dance Program has started. Lessons are held every Monday afternoon and evening until mid May. There is still lots of space available. There are Jazz and Ballet Classes for girls and boys aged seven and up and there is a class for adults. We would also like to start a class for 4-6 year olds. To register phone 724-3800.

There will be Cross Country Skiers wine and cheese social at the Elk Point Public Library from 7:30 - 10:00 p.m. on January 26th. Everybody is welcome!

There will also be a beginner's Cross Country Ski Clinic on Jan. 27th from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. This clinic is for real beginners but anyone can come. Everyone's guaranteed to learn something! Don't worry if you don't have skis, there will be lots of extra ski equipment available. There is a $10.00 fee for the clinic but this fee includes membership in the Elk Point Cross Country Ski Club. To register, phone Stephen at 724-3800.

Santa's helpers are thanked

Thank you, Elk Point, for helping to make the Santas Anonymous a success again this year. The Lioness Club would like to thank the following organizations for their generous donations of cash and gifts: Town of Elk Point, Elk Point Historical Society, Elk Point and District Lions Club, Elk Point Oilmen's Association, Elk Point Elks Lodge, Order of the Royal Purple, and Elk Point Oilettes.

The students of both the Elk Point Elementary and the F. G. Miller High School worked exceptionally hard for the Santas Anonymous Program. The Elementary students donated the proceeds from one day's hot food program in December, also their donation box was overflowing with the generous donation of gifts and food from the teachers and students. The Grade 8 Home Ec class of F. G. Miller High School pooled their resources and bought a gift for the Santas Anonymous Program. The Career and Life Management class purchased many gifts and groceries for the food hampers, and the High School donation box was also overflowing. Thank you, students, for extending your generosity to help needy families and children in the Christmas season.

We would also like to send a special thank you to Daphne at FCSS, Reverend Sam Donaldson and Pastor James MacLellan for assisting in the distribution of toys and food hampers.

To all of you who helped to make Santas Anonymous such a success, A BIG THANK YOU!

The Elk Point Public Library's Annual meeting will be held January 30th at 6:00 p.m. in the Library. Come and join the library board and staff at this public meeting to learn about the progress made by the library in 1989.

The library is endeavoring to start an outreach service. Last week the staff visited Heritage Lodge with a selection of large print, picture and talking books. The library is looking for volunteers to help with this very worthwhile project. If you could spare some time every other week, please get in touch with Diane Fraess, the volunteer coordinator at the library.

Finally, the soccer video you have been waiting for: Head to Toe: Soccer For Little Leaguers. Ideal for beginners who need to learn basic skills. Also, perfect for experienced players who want to improve and includes valuable information for coaches and parents. Another video just in is "Miracle of Life". This tape takes you on an incredible voyage through the human body as a new life begins. The Miracle of Life won an Emmy Award as a program in the highly acclaimed NOVA series on PBS. "Coping with Stress" is a video which gives ten methods of dealing with stress, including a self hypnosis technique.

NEW BOOKS: "Freefall" by William Hoffer is the incredible story of flight 143, a Boeing 767 Air Canada Jet that ran out of fuel westbound at 41,000 feet over Red Lake, Ontario. "The Russia House" by John LeCarre is not only a spy story and an anti-spy story, but also a tale of love and lovers pitted against corporate attitudes of habitual belligerence. This is a magnificent thriller. "The Day They Took the Children" by Ben Wicks is a collection of memories of evacuation by those who were evacuated from all over Britain to the safety of the countryside to escape the bomb threatened cities during World War II. "Fate and Fortune" by Brian Innes tells four of the most widely used and practised methods of foretelling the future.

Your CA has more than tax advice to offer

Of course, the Chartered Accountant has undergone extensive training to keep your taxes at the legal minimum — no more, no less.But more than that, your CA has the practical, no-nonsense business experience to help you make smart management decisions. Decisions that will steer your business clear of hazards and toward opportunities for growth and profit.Historical Footnote Practice review for public protectionSince 1981, Chartered Accountants practicing public accounting in Alberta have undergone mandatory reviews of their practice policies and procedures. The reviews are conducted to ensure that the high professional standards are maintained by Alberta CAs.Every firm — from sole practitioners to large national offices — is regularly assessed and judged for competency and compliance with these professional standards.In this way, the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Alberta strives to ensure the public's trust in the CA profession is well-deserved.

Air is used to describe outgoing mental energies, put more simply, this is communication. Here the ideas are formed in the mind of the individual, and put out in hope that they can influence and meet the ideas of another individual; this is communication, in an abstract sense. Gemini, Libra, and Aquarius are all Air Signs, and people with Sun in those signs are very much concerned with communicating their energies to others. Whether anything gets done as a result of all the conversation is not actually important; if there is to be a concrete result, then that is the province of Fire or Earth energies. Here the emphasis is on shaping the concept, not the reality. There is an affinity with Fire energies, because both of them are outgoing, but other than that they do not cross over into each other's territory. Wherever you meet

Grey visits school

By Julie Ann Sandfly

Grade 6, Frog Lake Napawaew School

On Monday, January 15, Miss Deborah Grey, M.P. for Beaver River, took time off from her busy schedule to speak to the Grade 5 and 6 classes at Frog Lake School regarding Canadian Government. She told us how she joined the Reform Party to become a Member of Parliament and about her duties in Ottawa and Alberta as a Member of Parliament. She got nominated to represent the Reform Party and she ran for election in November 1988, but was defeated by John Dahmer, Progressive Conservative Party candidate.

She told us there are 295 seats in the House of Commons. Miss Deborah Grey is 37 and was born July 1, 1952 on Canada Day. She told us how she felt being a Member of Parliament. She said it was hard. She was a teacher for 10 years. She taught in Frog Lake for one year in 1979-80.

We enjoyed her visit here in Frog Lake, Alberta.

Metelytsia Dancers

4By Margaret Bayduza

A belated Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to everyone! The Elk Point Metelytsia Dancers finished off the Christmas season with our annual traditional Christmas supper on January 9. It was well attended by the dancers, their families, and our special Babas. We'd like to thank our guests, Reverend Hohol and his family, for attending.

Our senior group travelled to Westlock on Saturday, January 20. We again performed at various places to help them raise money for their MiniTelerama. Our thanks to Ed Dickey for inviting us back this year.

This year, for the first time, there is an Elk Point MiniTelerama. Our dancers will be performing at various times during the talent show on January 27 at the high school gym. Our club will also be serving (not preparing!) the supper that evening. Here is a reminder of events planned for this weekend. On Friday night (the 26th) there will be a school dance at the high school. Saturday afternoon (the 27th) there will be a talent show in the gym, beginning at 1:00. Phone lines will be set up to accept pledges. In the evening there will be a supper and a dance. Tickets for the supper will be sold in advance. As there will only be a limited number, remember to pick them up as soon as possible. The dance will be open to everyone, with music by County Express. This is the first MiniTelerama to be hosted by Elk Point. We are both proud and excited that our town has been chosen for this event. We hope that everyone lends their support and enthusiasm so that we can have a great time and bring ACT back again next year!

Air energy in action, there is a lot of talk, and new ideas are thrown up constantly, but there is no real or tangible result, no real product, and no emotional involvement; were there to be emotional content, the energies would be watery ones. On January 31 we will talk about the last energy, Water.

Aries

Break out of your existing routine. Be near a loved one. You will enhance your aura to give you a sensual charisma. You'll amaze yourself with powerful gifts. A secret hope is about to come true. Enjoy a brisk walk in the morning.

Taurus

You certainly aren't tripping the light fantastic. Don't change horses in midstream, improve your self image. A different fashion style will brighten your mood. Shake away restraints. Follow your instincts. Wear something white or green. Avoid political discussions.

Gemini

Plan a more lucrative way of putting your money to work. Write down three wishes and then plan to make them come true. Relax with a crossword puzzle; share a hobby with a youngster. Life will become more pleasurable for you when you busy.

Cancer

A smile speaks louder than words, try it. Get hold of your nerves with more rest. You will get into your psychic self. Communication with loved ones is a must. A planetary shift in January eases pressures and will give you peace of mind. Stand tall.

Leo

You will have a action-filled recreational day with close friends. Focus on physical development. A peaceful week lies ahead. Break free from convention. Stay organized and you reach your objectives. Is your love souring? Sweeten it with a new approach.

Virgo

Spend more time in the shower. The warm water will soothe your body and mind. Easy does it for this week. Position of Neptune suggests safety in the home. You are neither over anxious or lackadaisical. Listen to a younger person for insight into a strange personal problem.

Libra

Easy on food and liquor. Librans always have much to celebrate. Family members become very demanding, aren't you entitled to a little quiet? Always stay up front. It's wise to be thick-skinned to cope with emotional problems. Stop and think, it pays.

Scorpio

You are a person of deep emotions but beware of your desires. You are exceedingly loyal. You have a bitter enemy to watch. Compromise is not your favorite word. Love is not casually bestowed. Your method of termination is swift and very permanent.

Sagittarius

You have a restlessness and passion for life but also are irritable and high-strung at times. Making you trigger-tempered, though you are a kind-hearted person. You are a friend as well as a lover. You enjoy relationships but will never become committed. Easy-come, easy-go.

Capricorn

You are practical, dependable, diligent, with an enormous ability to concentrate on goals. Personal loyalties mean a lot to you. Sometimes you hold yourself coolly aloof. Show your human side. You can be too cautious yet you can melt all the way.

Aquarius

You have been more than tolerant of late. You are always willing to help when needed. You try hard not to demand but understand. Live-and-let-live is your motto. Loyal and faithful, you expect the same treatment. You hate the financial eight ball. Good luck at your new job.

Pisces

Hold the dream of yourself as you wish to be, then strive to make the dream a reality by being strict with yourself. You are worth it! Fame and fortune can never take the place of love, tenderness and emotional security in your scale of values. Remember your friends.

PUBLIC NOTICE ALBERTA ENVIRONMENT WATER RESOURCES ACT Placta's Project

Notice is hereby given that Ducks Unlimited Canada has filed an application and plans under provisions of the Water Resources Act to construct the necessary works to impound a maximum of 500.00 acre-feet of water in a natural wetland with an annual water use of 127.0 acre-feet with a control structure located on the SE 13-56-9-4 for wildfowl propagation. The project involves stabilizing the wetland at an approximate full supply level of 500.5 meters which is approximately 0.2 metres above the approximate historic level which is presently maintained by beaver activity in the area. Any person with objections may file a statement of reasons for objecting with the Controller of Water Resources, Alberta Environment, 2nd Floor, Oxbridge Place, 9820-106 Street, Edmonton, T5K 2J6 on or before the 16th day of February, 1990. Please quote file number 25004 when replying.

Elks--OORP Funspiel

Windsor Midgets win tourney

Elk Point Midget hockey team participated in Marwayne's hockey tournament this past weekend. Although the team is small in number they are big at heart. You would have to watch them play to see the size of their hearts. No single player on the team tries to dominate, nor is anyone out there for a slow waltz. These young men are playing the game the way it is meant to be, a total team effort, and their performances show it.

Their first game of the weekend, against Marwayne, 'was probably the worst refereed game ever to be known,' according to one observer. Elk Point came out strong, took a good lead and then had to avoid a lot of stick work and retaliation from Marwayne. Delays and penalties slowed the game which ended 45 minutes late with Elk Point winning 17-9.

Game Two was against Paradise Hill, which was more of a match, but Elk Point, playing their aggressive and hard working type game won 8-5.

The final game in the A Pool was against Wainwright with each team having 10 skaters, so it could go either way. No way! Elk Point was playing in fine fashion, easily dumping Wainwright 11-4, and it could have been worse.

The boys are to be sincerely congratulated for the fine way they are representing Elk Point. Fans, come out to their next home game and see their ability for yourselves!

Back to basics of cleaning

Inexpensive old-fashioned substances can easily replace more toxic cleaners and chemicals around the house. These cleaning solutions are made up of the products that most of us have in our houses already.

Oven Cleaner: One-quarter cup ammonia. Preheat oven for 20 minutes. Turn off. Place ammonia in shallow, (non-aluminum) pan, fill with water, and place in oven overnight. In morning, clean with baking soda and water.

Toilet Bowl Cleaner: 1000 mg Vitamin C overnight, or baking soda, or mild detergent, or borax.

Glass Cleaner: 1 part vinegar, 4 parts water.

Abrasive Scouring Powder: baking soda.

All Purpose Cleaner: One-quarter cup baking soda, one-half cup ammonia, one-quarter cup vinegar, 1 gallon warm water.

Furniture Polish: Dissolve 1 teaspoon lemon oil in 2 cups mineral oil.

Silver Cleaner: toothpaste.

Air Freshener: Set out vinegar in an open dish; potpourri; baking soda in fridges, diaper pails.

WARNING: Even non-toxic cleaners are not for human consumption. Keep out of reach of children. Do not mix compounds; for example, ammonia and bleach react to form deadly fumes.

Grey visits school

By Zha-Zha Plandowski

Grade 6, Frog Lake Napawaew School On Monday, January 15, Miss Deborah Grey, M. P. for Beaver River, came to Frog Lake School. The 37 year old Reform Party representative took time out of her busy schedule to speak to the Grade 5 and 6 classes about Canadian Government.

You may think right away that she just rides airplanes and drinks coffee with her constituents, but the Grade 5 and 6 classes went behind the story. This hard working woman goes from place to place hardly ever having time to rest her feet. She explained her school years, growing up as a teenager disliking Social Studies but when she became a teacher she ended up teaching a Social Studies course, and then ran as the candidate for the Reform Party. She lost the first election in November of 1988 to John Dahmer, candidate for the PC party.

To her surprise she won the by-election following Dahmer's death to become the first Member of Parliament for the Reform Party.

She is also very proud to be a Canadian. She is a very respectable woman in many ways and I'm proud of our Member of Parliament, Deborah Grey.
